

EXTEND TIME LIMIT ON THE HORSE SHOW ENTRIES ONE WEEK

Promoters of Meet Take This Action on Request of Exhibitors.

The date for the closing of the entries for the National Capital Horse Show was extended at a meeting of the executive committee of the club, held at the Metropolitan Club, from April 21 to April 29. This was done at the request of many of the exhibitors, who wanted more time to get in their entries.

It was also decided at the meeting, that membership to the association could be purchased for $5, and this will include admission to the show on the three days it is open.

The badges for members and officials will be of continental, buff and blue, the colors of the National Capital Horse Show.

Edward B. McLean and Samuel Walter Taylor, editor of the Rider and Driver, were named to go to Atlantic City from April 18 to 22 to secure entries for the show here from the exhibitors of the Atlantic City Horse Show.

Senator Joseph Bailey of Texas, who had been asked to act as judge of the trotters entered in the show, notified the committee this morning that he would be prevented from accepting the invitation of the committee because of his duties at the Senate.

Entries for the show were received from as far West as Chicago and St. Louis, and some of the prominent Western horsemen will bring strings of eight and ten horses.

The skeleton of the grandstand is now up, and the timbers have all been put in place. The stand will be 250 feet long and twenty-five feet wide. It will seat 2,500 persons and will have fifty private boxes, which will be sold for $50.

Because of the large number of entries being received, it has been found necessary to get more stable accommodations, and more box and tie stalls have been ordered made. The complete list of the judges is now nearly ready, and will be announced in a few days.

Tourists Offered Chance To Visit Annapolis

New England tourists to the Capital this week are taking in the sights not only of the city and surrounding points of interest, but are also making daily excursions to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, where a number of warships, torpedo boats and submarines are now at anchor. On account of the large number of excursionists coming to Washington from the schools and colleges of the East for Easter vacation outings the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis railroad has reduced its fare over Easter Monday between this city and Baltimore, so that a visit to the Monumental city may be had as well as one to Annapolis.

French President and Party to Visit Tunis

PARIS, April 15.—President Fallieres, accompanied by Ministers Del Casse and Pams and seven other government officials, left today on a two weeks' trip to Tunis, the French protectorate, in Northern Africa.
